

there is no longer any good reason to retain morse code requirements for general or tech class applicants. it could be retained for extra, however. 5 wpm is sufficient. with many countries dropping code requirements, us amateurs will only have themselves to send to- therefore, it should not be a strict requirement for hf privileges.